Message to the Families

Dear Families,

We want to take this opportunity again to say a massive thank you for everything you are doing to support your child's home learning during this period. We know it's not easy, but we so appreciate your support. It's been lovely seeing what families are achieving at home. Whether that is home learning on Google Classroom, cooking, playing outside or simply reading together. You've got this!

As always, keep communicating with us via info@goldfinchprimary.org.uk if you have any suggestions, need support, or have any questions. You can also call on 07985227057 between 8am and 4pm Monday - Friday.

(Bad) Joke of the week:

"What did the ocean say to the pirate?"

Nothing, it just waved.

National Theatre Access for schools

In response to the school closures caused by Coronavirus, National Theatre is now offering username and password access to the National Theatre Collection. For a temporary period, plays can be accessed remotely ensuring students studying from home can still watch them.

Your access details are: <https://www.dramaonlinelibrary.com>
Username: 2Nj!7XgSu2 Password: 6Bh#4Sdgc*

The Log in button is in the top right-hand corner of the landing page. Please insert the username and password to left-hand option of the login pop-up.

Please note: these details are for school students only and but they must not be offered to anyone outside the school or posted on social media.

Pluto star of the week: Miko

Pluto, we really shouldn't be towards the bottom of the leader board! We are Y6 and should be setting an example for the younger students! You've all be so fabulous with your maths this year! Come on, we can do this!

Online learning stars

Rekya

Rekya wrote a beautiful poem about the seasons for her last free write. I really enjoyed reading it, Rekya! Well done :)

Sahar

Sahar has done a brilliant job at getting her work sent to me on a regular basis. She is also fabulous at letting me know the work she is really enjoying. Well done, Sahar!
